

22. Correct the sentences, as in the example.

Es. Karen took the children to the cinema. → Karen didn't take the children to the cinema: she took them to the zoo.

- a. Karen took the children to the zoo yesterday. → .....
- b. They walked four blocks to the bus stop. → .....
- c. They stopped at the penguin pool first. → .....
- d. The children had an ice-cream at the kiosk. → .....
- e. They saw the tigers. → .....
- f. The weather was good all the time. → .....

23. Complete the conversation using the cues.

A HOLIDAY IN VENICE

- ..... (have) a nice weekend?
- Yes, I ....., thanks. I ..... (go) to Venice.
- ..... you go by car?
- No, I ..... (take) the train.
- ..... (be) Pamela with you?
- No, she ..... She ..... (stay) at home, because she ..... (have) a cold.
- What a pity! ..... (be) the weather good?
- It ..... (be) good in the morning, but in the afternoon it ..... (rain).
- ..... you visit St. Mark's Cathedral?
- Of course! I ..... (want) to feed the pigeons, but a policeman ..... (stop) me.
- ..... you buy a souvenir?
- Yes, I ..... (buy) a glass gondola for Pamela.

weather = tempo

feed the pigeons = dare da mangiare ai piccioni

24. Complete the dialogue using the cues.

was in bed • can • what about • am seeing • took

- Hello Jane, you look terrible!
- I know. I ..... with a headache this morning.
- Poor you! ..... a pain killer?
- No, thanks. I ..... one at 3 o'clock.
- Have a cup of tea. We ..... go to that nice café near the park.
- Sorry, Alina, but I ..... the doctor at 5. I'm in a hurry now.
- Ok. Take care!